Listerhill Credit Union to Break Ground in Rogersville

Muscle Shoals, AL: Listerhill Credit Union (LCU) held a groundbreaking ceremony Tuesday, February 10, 2009 at 10:00 a. m. at their new location in Rogersville, Alabama at 17051 Hwy 72. Credit union officials and staff, Chamber of Commerce and local dignitaries were present to mark the occasion.

The building was designed by Lambert, Ezell & Durham and is being constructed by Smith General Contractors, both of Florence. During the ceremony, President/CEO Brad Green announced that the Rogersville branch is expected to open in August or September of 2009. Green also explained that this location would be a full service branch with a drive-up teller window and ATM, full financial service lobby, and safe deposit boxes.

The credit union currently provides service to anyone who lives, works, or attends school in Colbert, Cullman, Fayette, Franklin, Lamar, Lauderdale, Lawrence, Limestone, Marion, Morgan, Walker or Winston counties, and their family members, are eligible to join Listerhill Credit Union.

Listerhill Credit Union is a not-for-profit, member-owned financial institution. Founded by Shoals residents over 55 years ago, Listerhill has grown to include over 63,000 members, $430 million in assets and 14 branches, making it the 7th largest credit union in Alabama.
